- b. "Qualified Individual with a Disability" means a person who meets the essential eligibility requirements for participation in any program, service, or proceeding in a court in Michigan. This not only includes persons involved in a case, such as lawyers, parties, witnesses, or jurors, but also includes spectators or anyone else who is eligible to participate in a program, service, or proceeding in a court in Michigan.

If the ADA coordinator, after consulting with the SCAO Regional Administrator, decides to deny the request, the ADA coordinator will inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for denial and the basis upon which a request for accommodations is denied.
- h. In the absence of an ADA coordinator, the court shall immediately designate an individual during the interim to receive and communicate with the individual who submits a request for accommodation. Until a new ADA coordinator is appointed, all requests shall be considered and decided by the chief judge. If an applicant wants a decision reviewed, they shall follow the procedure as outlined in paragraph 4(b). The chief judge shall ensure that a new ADA coordinator is appointed and that they are trained within 30 days of their appointment.
- i. A request may be denied only if:
  - i. The applicant is not a qualified individual with a disability as defined in subsection 1 of this order; or
  - ii. The requested accommodations would result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of the program, service, or activity; or
  - iii. The requested accommodations would create an undue financial or administrative burden on the court.

3. Duration and costs of accommodations

The accommodations will start on the date indicated in the response to the request for accommodations and will remain in effect for the period specified. Accommodations will be provided at no cost to the applicant.

4. Review procedure

- a. If the request is denied in whole or in part by the ADA coordinator, the applicant may request a further review on a Review of Request for Reasonable Accommodations and Response (SCAO-approved form MC 70a). The request must be submitted to the ADA coordinator for review by the chief judge. The chief judge will review the request and make a determination on the request for review before the proceeding or court service, activity, or program is held.

All written complaints received by the ADA coordinator, requests for review to the chief judge or designee, and responses from these two offices will be retained by the court for at least three years from the date of the last written response or other final communication.
