May 2017

It is a pleasure to present the Kent County Correctional Facility's Annual Statistical Report for the year 2016. We began reporting jail data on a yearly basis in 1998, and each new report adds to the long-term analytical value of the information collected. Our goal is to provide accurate, interesting and representative information to Sheriff's Department staff, criminal justice planners, educational experts and community members who are interested in the operation of the county jail. We trust you will find this report to be a helpful source of data in the months ahead.

As this report continues to evolve, there is an ongoing effort to present a fuller picture of the different types of activities that take place on a daily and yearly basis, without neglecting the original mission of this project. In light of this, I would direct the reader's attention to the pages highlighting the efforts of our Jail Intelligence Unit (JIU), for which 2016 represents the first full year of operation; as well as the information tracking our jail sally port assistance to other agencies, of which 2016 was also the first full year of tracking.

This report is organized to make the information accessible to the readers. You will notice that it has three general types of statistics. Inmate profile statistics depict an overall profile of the inmate population and correctional facility staff. Inmate population statistics address the topics of how many inmates are coming in, where they are coming from, why they are here, how long are they staying and some of the programs and services provided to them. Incident statistics allow us to evaluate the behavior of the inmate population while they are in jail.

The aim is to make these reports as functional as possible by including only the information that seems to be of general interest. I realize that this document will not answer every question. If you have further questions, please contact me and I will try to provide any additional information you need about the inmate population or facility operation. I value your comments and suggestions for future reports.

Sergeant Aaron Kleinheksel

It is with much sadness that we dedicate this year's report to Deputy Russ Stonehouse (1966-2017). Dep. Stonehouse played a very large part in the early years of this publication, to include designing many of the reports from which this information is collected.

Turnover rates in jails of 10% to 15% are not uncommon, and rates of 25% and higher are sometimes reported.

Total Number of Times an Inmate has been in KCCF

Core Group of 2,226 Offenders Return to Jail 15 Times or More

These graphs were produced by looking at the 15,022 unique offenders arrested in 2016 and counting how many times they had been in the Kent County Correctional Facility since 1985. The point of producing these graphs side-by-side is to show the difference in the number of times in jail between the repeat offenders (the recidivists are in the top chart) and the whole population that includes the lightweights (bottom chart).

TalkingPoint! Of all the people brought to jail, 52% are there for their first, second or third visit. Among the offenders who came to jail in 2016, there was one inmate who had been in KCCF 104 times. Remember, these numbers are just counting the times these offenders were in the Kent County Jail and doesn't include visits to jails in other counties.

Recidivism Rate of KCCF Inmates

The previous page examines recidivism by looking at the people in jail or being admitted to jail and looking backwards to see how many of them have been admitted to the Kent County Correctional Facility in previous years. Another approach to examining recidivism is examined on this page. This forward looking approach surveys a group of admissions at a point in the past and follows them in subsequent years to see how many individuals were rebooked after their initial release from the Kent County Correctional Facility. The information on this page examines inmates booked into the Kent County County Correctional Facility during calendar year 2009 and then measured what proportion of them were rebooked into the Kent County Correctional Facility through the remainder of 2009 through the end of 2014. We provided the jail data from those years to Andy Verheek at the Kent County Office of Community Corrections and he analyzed it for recidivism rates. The results of the analysis are reported on this page.

 TalkingPoint! There were a total of 66,146 unique individuals booked into KCCF at least one time over the six year period from 2009 through 2014. Out of these 66,146 individuals, 29,917 were rebooked (for any reason) into KCCF at least once during this same time period. This represents an overall recidivism rate of 45.2%, meaning that 45.2% of the individuals in this sample were booked into KCCF two or more times. Of the 29,917 offenders booked two or more times into KCCF, females were admitted an average of 3.7 times and males an average of 4.1 times.

"Class of 2009 to 2014" - 66,146 individuals booked &amp; rearrested anytime in 2009 through 2014
	Total Individuals booked at least once anytime in 2008 through 2013	Number with at least one subsequent rebooking	Resulting Recidivism Rate

Hispanic	8,229	3,237	39.3%
White	35,800	13,920	38.9%

 TalkingPoint! The table above includes people whose first arrest in the time period came in 2009 but also those whose first arrest was during the years 2009 through 2014, so some of them did not have much elapsed time to be re-arrested. In the table below we looked at the recidivism rate for ONLY those individuals that were booked into KCCF from January 1, 2009 through December 31, 2009 and released to the community meaning that those released to prison, another facility, or another agency were filtered out of the analysis. Each of the offenders in the remaining population had a minimum of 5 full years to get in trouble with the law again. There were 17,391 individuals booked into KCCF during 2009 and subsequently released back into the community. Out of these 17,391 offenders, 11,247 were rebooked into KCCF at least once from their initial booking in 2009 until December 31, 2014. This includes individuals first booked into KCCF in 2009 with their first subsequent booking occurring in the same year (2009). This equates to a recidivism rate of 64.7%.

Recidivism Rate of KCCF Inmates

The previous page examines recidivism by looking at individuals booked into KCCF from 2009 through 2014 to see how many may have been rebooked during that same time frame. This page looks at a group of admissions for a more recent time span of 2014 through 2016. We looked at the overall recidivism rate for this three-year time span as well as recidivism when selecting out offenders who received a proxy score in 2014. Jail data from these years were analyzed by Andy Verheek at the Kent County Office of Community Corrections.

TalkingPoint! There were a total of 39,342 unique individuals booked into KCCF at least one time over the three year period from 2014 through 2016. Using a broad definition of recidivism that looks at rebooking into KCCF for any reason, including probation and parole violations, 15,383 out of the 38,667 individuals were rebooked at least once during this three year period. This represents an overall recidivism rate of 39.8%. Of these 15,383 individuals booked two or more times into KCCF, females were admitted an average of 3.1 times and males an average of 3.3 times. It should be noted that the recidivism rate is dependant on the definition of recidivism used at the time of analysis. For example, measuring recidivism for those with an initial booking event in 2014 with recidivism measured as a rebooking for a new offense with probation and parole violation bookings excluded for those individuals released to the community (meaning that those released to prison, another agency, or other facility were excluded from the analysis), the resulting recidivism rate would increase to 53.8%.

TalkingPoint! The previous table above examined those individuals whose first arrest occurred during the time period of 2014 through 2016 and includes a broad definition of recidivism.. However, not all offenders booked into the Kent County Correctional Facility are predicted to recidivate at the same rate. Using a proxy risk assessment instrument that takes into consideration each individuals age at first offense, prior bookings into jail, and current age, Kent County Correctional Facility personnel can obtain an initial prediction of those most likely to be rebooked into the facility in the future. This proxy risk score is instrumental to the establishment and provision programming in the Kent County Correctional Facility. The following table examines the recidivism rates for those individuals that were booked into KCCF for the first time in 2014 and received a proxy score and were most likely to be released back into the community meaning that offenders released to prison, another facility, or other agency were filtered out. There were 5,438 individuals booked into KCCF in 2014 that had received a proxy score during their stays and were released back into the community. Out of these 5,438 individuals, 4,097 were rebooked into KCCF at least once for any reason (including parole and probation violations) following their initial booking in 2014 until December 31, 2016 for an overall recidivism rate of 75.3%. The table below illustrates that the recidivism rates are indeed different for those offenders scored at a low, medium, or high risk of recidivism based on the proxy risk assessment instrument.

Recidivism Info - Including Likelihood of Recidivating

 TalkingPoint! Additional information regarding regarding the recidivism of individuals booked into KCCF between 2014 and 2016:

- ➔ An offender with an initial 2014 booking event experienced 49 separate bookings between 2014 and 2016.
- ➔ Overall, male offenders were booked an average of 2.0 times and female offenders were booked an average of 1.7 times.
- ➔ Black offenders were booked an average of 2.2 times, hispanic offenders were booked an average of 1.6 times, and white offenders were booked an average of 1.7 times.
- ➔ Average (median) length of time between an offender's first and second bookings was 149.1 days for male offenders and 153.9 days for female offenders.
- ➔ Average (median) length of time between an offender's first and second bookings was 157.0 days for black offenders, 159.9 days for Hispanic offenders, and 142.2 days for white offenders.

 TalkingPoint! Kent County has continued using an instrument to predict the likelihood that an inmate booked into KCCF will be rebooked into KCCF at some future date. This "Proxy" instrument divides the inmates into three levels, with R1's being the least likely to return to jail, R2's being in the middle, and R3's being the most likely to return to jail. The breakdown of Proxy scores for individuals booked between 2014 and 2016 include - R1: 11.5% // R2: 48.6% // R3: 39.9%. One of the reasons for this disparity is that the proxy is administered only to those individuals who are in jail 3 days or longer.

- ➔ Looking at the 620 offenders that received a low category proxy score (R1) from the Recidivism Since 2014 page, male offenders averaged 2.1 bookings while female offenders also averaged 2.6 bookings. Looking at the 2,112 offenders that received a high category proxy score (R3) from the same page, the average number of bookings for male offenders averaged 3.9 bookings while female offenders averaged 3.7
- ➔ Looking at those offenders that received a low category proxy score (R1) from the Recidivism Since 2014 page, black offenders averaged 2.2 bookings, whites averaged 2.2 bookings, and Hispanics averaged 2.6 bookings. Switching to the offenders that received a high category proxy score (R3) from the same page, the average for black offenders increases to 4.2 bookings, the average for white offenders increases to 3.5 bookings, and the average for Hispanic offenders increases to 3.4 bookings.
- ➔ Looking at those offenders that received a low category proxy score (R1) from the Recidivism Since 2014 page, the average (median) length of time between an offender's first and second bookings was 120.8 days for male offenders and 114.2 days for female offenders. Switching to those offenders receiving a high category proxy score (R3), the average (median) length of time between an offender's first and second bookings decreases to 109.4 days for male offenders and 104.8 days for female offenders.
- ➔ Looking at those offenders that received a low category proxy score (R1) from the Recidivism Since 2014 page, the average (median) length of time between an offender's first and second bookings was 124.1 days for black offenders, 120.9 days for Hispanic offenders, and 113.7 days for white offenders. Switching to those offenders receiving a high category proxy score (R3), the average (median) length of time between an offender's first and second bookings decreases to 104.8 days for black offenders and 110.1 days for white offenders while it increases to 123.9 days for Hispanic offenders.

Midway through 2004 the jail began using a new Jail Management System called JailView. JailView uses the Northpointe® decision tree classification instrument which breaks inmates down into the traditional three categories of Maximum, Medium and Minimum, but it also provides nine levels of sub-categories that are useful for making program and placement decisions. Below is a brief definition of each of the custody levels and the average number and proportion of inmates within each classification.

Custody Level	Definition	Main Jail Males	Main Jail Females	Jail System (M & F)
High (1)	These inmates are in jail on a violent charge, with a prior conviction on a violent charge, and with a record of violent institutional behavior.	3 (0%)	0 (0%)	3 (0%)
Close (2)	These inmates have a combination of two incidents of violence found in either their current charge, past charges or institutional behavior record.	29 (3%)	3 (2%)	32 (3%)
Medium Assaultive (3)	These inmates have one incident of violence in either their current charge, past charge or institutional behavior.	160 (18%)	11 (6%)	172 (16%)
Medium (4)	These inmates are in jail for a serious non-violent felony and/or have institutional behavior problems.	202 (23%)	44 (25%)	246 (23%)
Medium Pre-Sentenced (5)	These inmates are likely prison bound, but they are well behaved and have no record of violence or rule violations.	60 (7%)	10 (6%)	71 (7%)
Minimum Pre-Sentenced (6)	These inmates will likely not go to prison and are well behaved with no record of violence or rule violations.	141 (16%)	32 (18%)	173 (16%)
Minimum (7)	These inmates are fully sentenced to county jail time on a felony charge, have no recent history of violence and are well behaved, but they lack employment or ties to the community.	115 (13%)	27 (15%)	144 (13%)
Low (8)	These inmates are sentenced to the county jail on a felony charge, have no recent record of violence, are well behaved and have employment or local ties to the community.	105 (12%)	28 (16%)	134 (13%)
Very Low (9)	These inmates are sentenced to the county jail on misdemeanor charges, have no recent record of violence, are well behaved and have ties to the community.	9 (1%)	4 (2%)	13 (1%)

Average Length of Stay Depicted as Jail Bed Days

TalkingPoint! This chart shows the concept of average length of stay depicted as Jail Bed Days. Jail Bed Days are an accurate way of displaying the actual impact on jail beds, because it is counting the days that a jail bed is occupied. The chart above shows that although we had 11,375 people who stayed less than one day in jail, they used far fewer jail beds than the 2,324 inmates who stayed 5 to 15 days in jail. In fact, the 521 inmates who stayed 61 to 90 days used the most jail beds. The main interpretation of these data is that the greatest impact on jail capacity would be achieved by concentrating our efforts on reducing the stay of the inmates who are in jail from one to five months. It is that group of inmates who are using most of the jail's beds.

Reasons Why Inmates are Released and the Percentage of Inmates Released in the Most Common Types of Releases

The Majority of Incoming Inmates Released Back to the Community

TalkingPoint! 87% of the inmates who come into our jail are released directly back into the community. This chart is based on a sample of over 22,000 records in 2016. Only about 13% get sent to prison or to another agency. Hard data is not available on that 13%, but most of those inmates return to our community at some point. It is important to remember that resources devoted to local jail inmates benefit our local communities.

County Jail Reimbursement Program

Fiscal Year 2016 Update by Andy VerHeek

CJRP reimbursement and eligibility criteria continued in the same manner during FY 2016 that was implemented in a previous fiscal year. The table below shows that Kent County experienced a slight increase in the amount of funds received through CJRP from $1,088,015 in FY 2015 to $1,095,052 during FY 2016.

Reimbursement and eligibility criteria for CJRP continue to include:

1. All counties in Michigan are required to follow the same eligibility and reimbursement criteria.
2. Three different reimbursement amounts are provided and depend upon each offender's sentencing guideline score and type of offense.
3. Save for a few select offenses, a majority of Crime Class F offenses that were ineligible for reimbursement during FY 2015 continue to be ineligible during FY 2016.

In addition to these changes, CJRP monies received by Kent County are impacted by the length of stay in the Kent County Correctional Facility for each offender as well as the jail disposition rate for CJRP-eligible offenders sentenced in Kent County.

Total Number of Category 1, 2 and 3 Rule Violations in the Last Eleven Years

These graphs show the number of Category 1, 2, and 3 reports per year for the last few years. We have three levels of disciplinary rule violations in the jail. The most minor rule violations are Category 1 violations. Category 2 violations are more serious and Category 3 violations are the most serious. Our disciplinary philosophy is that we would rather deal with an inmate's misbehavior while it is still minor, which is why there are more Category 1 violations than 2's, and more 2's than 3's. Inmates committing Category 2 and 3 violations go to the jail's Disciplinary Segregation Unit to complete their disciplinary sanctions. This chart includes only those rule violations that occurred in

	2004	2005	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016

total number of inmates placed on suicide precaution	302	555	464	449	403	303	253	266	275	165	213	171	194

Our highest level of suicide precaution places inmates in a cell under constant video surveillance. We track how inmates get placed on that level of observation. Either they have made a suicide attempt or gesture, or they have made a suicidal threat to a staff person, or they have been judged to be suicidal following an interview by one of our mental health professionals. The chart above depicts the total number of "S-3's" (the highest level of precaution) and of that number, the number that were declared S-3's because of an actual in-progress attempt to harm themselves, either by hanging, an overdose, cutting themselves, jumping from a height, drowning in a toilet, banging their head, or some other means. A continuing general downward trend can be seen beginning in 2005 in regards to the number of S-3 precautions assigned.

We have a number of separate housing units in the mail jail (their designations appear in the first column). We keep track of the number of inmates who must be moved out of each housing unit and placed in Disciplinary Segregation for a category 2 or 3 violation. We divide the number of rule violations by the number of inmates living in the housing unit to get an index for comparison purposes (this is the number in the third column). The lower the index, the better behaved the housing unit is. As you can tell from this table, the minimum (MINM) custody housing units are generally better behaved than the medium (MEDM) custody units, which are better behaved than the maximum (MAXM) custody units. The classification pods hold inmates who have not yet been assigned a custody level. The "Male Mental Health Unit" houses inmates with serious mental illness.

TalkingPoint! Our old linear jail was replaced and demolished in Dec. of 2012. Since that time, the facility has been full or semi-direct supervision, with the exceptions of D1, B2, and B3 (excepting the Mental Health / Special Custody units on each of those floors). 37% of our fights occurred in non-direct supervision housing, while 64% happened in Medium and Maximum custody units.

These tables present some of the information that is gathered by the jail staff on particular crimes committed in the community. Corrections Officers play a significant role in assisting law enforcement with criminal intelligence. This information assists local police agencies develop suspects, which in many cases has led to their arrest and conviction. The KCCF now has 2 dedicated Jail Intelligence Unit (JIU) officers who are responsible for the follow-up on all generated intelligence reports, as well as acting as contact points for outside agencies. This has been very successful in streamlining and enhancing the effectiveness of intelligence-gathering efforts.

Until recent years, Jail staff were an underutilized resource for the photo identification of suspects generated by law enforcement. Due to the facts that most suspects are repeat offenders and that jail staff know them well, since 2013 there has been a renewed emphasis on using this resource, with predictably successful outcomes.

Sally Port Assistance Provided to Arresting Agencies

It has always been a custom of the KCCF to provide a courtesy service to arresting agencies who call ahead and request assistance with uncooperative arrestees. When notified, our intake staff will meet the arresting agency in the jail sally port and retrieve the suspect directly from the agency vehicle and escort them into our facility. The information on this page provides an important window into this particular activity. We began officially tracking these numbers in April of 2015, so the data for that year is partial. What we are interested in is how often these events result in a use of force versus how often our staff are able to de-escalate tense situations without resorting to the use of force. The numbers on this page are a credit to the skill and professionalism of our correctional intake staff in dealing with the most difficult individuals at one of their most stressful moments – arrival at the jail.

The answers to the mental health survey questions they are asked are summarized above. The data in this table is based on close to 24,000 offenders who came to jail during 2016. Mental Health services are an ever-increasing part of inmate management in the jail, and must be taken into consideration at almost every significant event in an offender's stay: from intake, to classification, to discipline, to release.

💡 TalkingPoint! These numbers represent the percentage of inmates in population who admit these needs to a classification officer. This information is based on the self report of the inmates during their classification interviews this year. It is not based on a clinical assessment and the report is not verified independently. This reflects an inmate's "admission" only. Not all inmates honestly report their needs at the classification interview. All inmates who stay in jail longer than 3 days are given a classification interview.

In 2012, the jail implemented the Sexual Abuse Incident Review system per PREA standard 115.86. Under this standard, the Division must conduct a sexual abuse incident review at the conclusion of every sexual abuse investigation, to include when the allegation has not been substantiated, unless the allegation has been determined to be unfounded. Such review will ordinarily occur within 30 days of the conclusion of the investigation. The review team will include upper-level management officials, with input from line supervisors, investigators, and medical or mental health practitioners. The jail administration will implement any recommendations for improvement, or it will document its reasons for not doing so.

Review Criteria:

1. Consider whether the allegation or investigation indicates a need to change policy or practices to better prevent, detect, or respond to sexual abuse
2. Consider whether the alleged incident was motivated by race; ethnicity; gender identity; lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, or intersex identification, status, or perceived status; or gang affiliation; or was motivated or otherwise caused by other group dynamics in the facility.
3. Examine the area in the facility where the allegation occurred to assess whether physical barriers in the area may enable abuse.
4. Assess the adequacy of staffing levels in on all shifts in that area.
5. Assess whether monitoring technology should be deployed or augmented to supplement supervision by staff.
6. Prepare a report of its findings, add any recommendations for improvement, and submit such report to the facility head and PREA Coordinator.

In all of the allegations that were reviewed, it was clear that staff have implemented training that has been occurring since PREA requirements. All investigations were done in a timely manner and all complaints were addressed immediately upon their receipt. Continued training for all staff has focused on PREA requirements, staff obligations for reporting and victim care, and preservation and protection of the scene until the appropriate steps can be taken to collect any evidence. Additionally, a new reporting system (jail management system) is being implemented to better track and report incidents.

A Special Thanks to Lt. Scott Nibbelink, the PREA Coordinator who provided the information on the previous three pages.
